Kingsbury is situated at the terminus of the Fayetteville & Raleigh Plank Road, cleven miles from the former place, and within three miles of King's Landing on Cape Fear River. These premises offer more business conveniences and comforts for living, perhaps, than any country seat in Cumberland. On them is a neat two-story family mansion, containing seven rooms—a fire-place in each, with front and as much good cheer as will be found any where, perhaps a are nine other frame buildings, with brick chimneys to each, and rooms sufficient to accommodate from fifty to sixty negroes; a frame barn 50 by 60 feet, with stalls for 40 horses, Blacksmith Shops, Wheelwright Shop, Turpentine Sheds, &c.; all within convenient distance of the best Springs of Sandhill Water. All the buildings are new and have been improvements we will add 1,500 acres of Pine Land, and we will take $3,500 for the whole, which is $1000 less than the cost of the improvement. We have also, on the premises, Turpentine Distilery, which can be bought cheap. If the right sort of a purchaser presents himself and wishes a partner in his operations, we will furnish one with sufficient capital to conduct a profitable business. healthy country seat with all conveniences for living at hand, these premises would be a very desirable attachment to the Ashe Plantation, containing seven hundred acres of the best Cape Fear bottoms, and now in market. These two es during the night.

Estates are connected by a good Ferry Landing, and are only three miles apart, and will be sold together or separate. For further particulars apply to T. S. Lutterloh, Esq., or the subscribers.
